From the Research and Training Center for Children's Mental Health, Tampa, Florida...

******************************************************************************
This News brief alerts you to a new article by Jane Knitzer in the following special issue from Health Affairs: Iglehart, J. K. (2006). Mental Health: Progress and Pitfalls, [Special Issue], Health Affairs, 25(3). http://www.healthaffairs.org/

From Jane Knitzer's article, "Beyond Integration: Challenges For Children’s Mental Health": [from the abstract] This paper reviews access, outcomes, and quality in the children’s mental health system. We contend that a major focal point of future reforms should be at the organization level of care delivery. We identify five areas for intentional policy action to better infuse quality into the system. We also call for building upon the momentum of recent high-visibility reform proposals and for renewed advocacy to advance quality-linked perspectives into the children’s mental health system beyond its focus on children with severe emotional disturbances.

A complete table of contents is available at: http://datatrends.fmhi.usf.edu/news_0129b.pdf

******************************************************************************
Data Trends are produced by the Research and Training Center for Children's Mental Health, Louis de la Parte Florida Mental Health Institute, University of South Florida, Tampa. Data Trends are funded by the Center for Mental Health Services, SAMHSA, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. There are two Data Trends products: 1) Summaries (ISSN# 1537-0399), which detail recent, published articles on systems of care for children with emotional and behavioral disabilities and their families, and; 2) News briefs (ISSN# 1537-0402), which highlight related items or events of interest to the field.