Just released! The World Health Organization. (2005). The mental health policy and service guidance package. Geneva: Authors.

From the preface: This package consists of a series of interrelated, user-friendly modules that are designed to address the wide variety of needs and priorities in policy development and service planning. The topic of each core module represents a core aspect of mental health. The document includes a chapter on child and adolescent mental health policies and plans, and can be found at:
